GENERAL ADMINISTRATION (AR) DEPARTMENT

RESOLUTION

The 12th March 2008

SUB: Establishment of Centre for Good Governance at the State level.

For improving governance there is a need to establish an institution to undertake governance reforms in Orissa by bringing together knowledge, technology and people. The institution will support reforms in Government to foster growth oriented and people centered good governance.

2. With the aforesaid objective, Government after careful consideration have decided to constitute Centre for Modernizing Government Initiatives (CMGI). CMGI will undertake action research, provide professional advice to, and conduct change management programmes for Government Departments and agencies to help them implement their reform agenda successfully. It will work closely with policy makers and other stakeholders for an accountable and transparent Government.

3. CMGI formed under this Resolution will take steps for formation of the Society under Society Registration Act, 1860 to provide an organizational basis for its operations and management.

4. Already the Government have initiated Orissa Modernizing Government Initiative (OMGI) programme with the assistance of DFID upto 1st December, 2008. The Centre will carry forward the programme beyond the period of DFID assistance.
